

We are...

...and this is OUR story.

WE

entered PV as freshmen... made friendships that will last a lifetime...cheered on the

GREEN & WHITE at Girls' Show...danced the night away at Sophomore Social... were a part of the GREEN ARMY...made it through SATs/ACTs our junior year...woke up early for club meetings... watched some spectacular performances... laughed at inside jokes...brought home another victory for the Hornets...

That was then...this is NOW...

2011 Class Advisors

Ms. Erin McNeill

Mrs. Cheryl Grande

To the Class of 2011,

It is hard to believe that four years have passed since you first arrived as freshmen! In that time, you have had many varied experiences that have helped to shape you into the young adults you are. As you look back at this book in years to come, we hope that it will help you remember with fondness some of these many experiences and the many people with whom you shared your time here at Passaic Valley.

Passaic Valley will remember you, the Class of 2011, as a class that was bright, energetic, talented, athletic, committed and full of school spirit. Each of you as individuals provided a stitch in the tapestry that characterized the Class of 2011. Your collective efforts made your class successful and well-respected within the school community. We are so proud of your accomplishments. As you begin the next phase of your lives, we wish you continued success. Wherever your road may lead, always remember that your journey started here, and keep that Hornet pride in your heart forever.

Your Class Advisors, Ms. Erin McNeill and Mrs. Cheryl Grande

Freshman Survey

Have you ever been yelled at by an upper classman?
 What did they say?

- "Yes, You need to learn how to walk" -Suzie Fishbach
- "Yes, These stupid freshmen" -Jennifer Najjar
- "Yes, I hate freshmen" -Ariana Bernardo

What is the craziest thing you ever witnessed in PV?

- "A lot of makeouts" -Dan Cirrincione
- "In gym when some seniors sing while running" -Taylor Panas
- "A kid running in the hallway and a teacher opened a door and the kid ran into the door" -Nick Sisco

Do you like the cafeteria food? What kind of food do you like?

- "No, I think we should have more healthy choices" -Kimberly Minarolli
- "Yeah it's pretty good but i don't like sandwiches or wraps. They should have grilled cheese or something. The cookies are delicious." -Julia Black
- "It's alright I mean you know nothing compares to mama's cooking" -Paul Yun

What is your opinion of Girls' Show?

- "I like participating and supporting all of the girls" -Megan Coughlin
- "Girls' Show is good because girls don't get too noticed during basketball and football so it's good" -Michael Melograno
- "It's over rated" -Danny Abate

Dear Members of the Class of 2011:

"Change is inevitable. To resist it is to invite disappointment and defeat. When we expect challenge-- and use it to our advantage-- change becomes an ally rather than an adversary"

~Anonymous

The Passaic Valley Regional High School administration and staff welcomed your class in September of 2007 as wide-eyed ninth grade students. At those orientation meetings, the administration stressed the importance of accepting change and taking advantage of all opportunities being afforded the members of the class. The mantra was to become involved in the school and become part of the deep traditions at Passaic Valley. A review of the Class of 2011 indicates that most of you have heeded those suggestions and have become involved in the numerous offerings at our school.

The challenge at Passaic Valley is that a regional high school is faced with bringing students together from three different school districts and molding them into a unified class. Clearly this scenario represented a significant change for you as incoming students. However, your class was flexible, willing to change and new relationships were easily established across community lines as you came together as a class with your own identity.

Yes, change is inevitable. However, we trust that your experiences at Passaic Valley, which included academic pursuits, the fine and performing arts, community service activities, club and athletic participation have prepared you for the next phase of your life.

On behalf of the Board of Education and Administration, I wish you the very best in your future plans and remind you to maintain your Hornet Pride in the Green and White.

Respectfully,

Viktor J. Joganow,
Ed.D

Retirees

Mrs. Judith Derosa

Mrs. Nancy Garofalo

"Retirement is a time
For feeling glad to be alive,
A time when friendships blossom
And enthusiasms thrive.
A chance to do the special things
You always wished you could.
Retirement is a special time
For knowing...life is good."

THANK YOU FOR YOUR YEARS OF DEDICATION!

HONOR: PERFECT ATTENDANCE FOR 35 YEARS!

Mrs. Claire Levash

Mr. James Ferretti

People don't play a sport because it's hate it, but they couldn't imagine them, the love/hate relationship. It's practices, parties, cheers, long bus different types of shoes, water, appreciate. They live for the way it knowing those two extra sprints They live for the way they become a the countless songs they sing in their They live for the competition, they memories, and the pain. It's who *fun. Ask any athlete: most of them their life without it. It's part of what they live for. They live for the rides, invitationals, countless pairs of Gatorade, & coaches you dislike but feels when they beat the other team, they ran in practice were worth it.

family with their team, they live for

Amanda Abene

Dear Amanda,
Where do we start to tell you how proud we are of you? Over the past four years you have worked so hard in school and have been so dedicated. Your persistence and drive to do your best is incredible. You have become independent and ready to conquer the world. We know that you will be successful in whatever you do. We are extremely proud of you and are looking forward to your continued success in the years to come. We will always be there for you. You will always be there for you. You always have our love and support in whatever you do. We are proud to call you our daughter.

Love always,
Mom and Dad

Danielle Antonucci

Dear Dani,
Wow, I can't believe you're going to college! I can't believe how fast these years have gone by. I would mention some of our good times growing up, but then I'd have written a novel. You truly are my best friend and I don't know what I'm going to do if you go away to college. You are an amazing sister and I love you so much. Good luck with everything to come, I know you will succeed! Congrats!!
Love, Ky

It seems like just yesterday you were sitting in the rocking chair reading your favorite bedtime story, Milk and Cookies and listening to you tell us stories about daddy on the paby. Now here we are getting ready to send you off to college.

I can't believe how fast the years flew by. You know if it were up to me, I would have slowed them down to keep you here longer. Lol... I just want you to know how very proud we are of you, of the choices you've made, and all you have accomplished in the past four years. You are a determined young lady who won't stop young lady who won't stop until you make your dreams come true. There is no doubt in our minds that you will reach your goal and become a Nurse Practitioner living in a house on the beach in California. Just don't forget to call me... everyday! We Love You. Mom, Dad, Kylie

Toniann Appio

Dear Toniann,
With love and pride we watched you grow into an amazing young woman. May the joy you have given us in the past bring you success in the future. We are so proud of the person you have become and all of your accomplishments. We know that, with your confidence, dedication and determination you can reach all your goals. Stay focused and pursue each and everyone, and all your dreams will come true. Live life to the fullest extent and always remember that we love and support you with all our hearts. We love you,
Mom, Dad, Melissa, and Joey

Nicole Marie Bruno

Nicole,
It seems like yesterday that the big yellow school bus took you to kindergarten and today you are graduating for high school.

We are so proud of you Nicole; you are such a warm, kind and beautiful young woman. May God guide you, keep you safe and bless you with good health. We hope that your life will be filled with joy and may you achieve whatever you heart desires. Always know that we will be here for you, unconditionally. Thanks for being such a wonderful daughter, you are amazing... Thank you for being you... We enjoyed every minute... We love you forever,
Mom, Dad, & Steven

Joseph Robert Calandriello

Dear Joe,
It seems as if it was only yesterday you were in kindergarten, and now here you are graduating from high school. You've grown into a fine young man, and we are extremely proud of you. We hope you get everything you want in life. Be happy and healthy. We love you very much,
Mom, Dad, Matthew, and Katie

Michael Claudio

Dear Michael,
Congratulations!! We're so proud of you and the person you've become. You have integrity and honesty that will stay with you throughout your life. You've always made good choices and followed the right path. We know you will be able to do anything you want with your determination. Good luck in college.
Love,
Mom, Dad, & Steve

Morgan Chumacas

Dear Morgan,
Since the day you were born, you have been an endless source of happiness. You have brought smiles to our faces and joy to our hearts. Never stop smiling, never stop caring and never stop dreaming.

"The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." ...Wishing you a life time of beautiful dreams. We love you,
Mom, Dad, Connor, & Christopher

Danielle Coiro

Dear Danielle,

It's hard to believe that seventeen years have passed so quickly and that little girl who was always laughing, playing and needing our attention has grown into such an independent person. We are so proud of you and the person you have become and we look forward to the wonderful things you will achieve in your life.

Remember to always follow your heart and everything will fall into place. May god watch over you and keep you safe and happy as you pursue your dreams. We love you and will miss you when you leave for college. Congratulations on all of your accomplishments at PV!

Love Always,

Mom, Dad, Angelo, & Kevin

Dominique DeFrancisi

Dear Dominique,

Where did all the years go? It seems like yesterday we brought you home from the hospital with your two older brothers. The only girl in the family, you've grown up tough and learned how to stand up for yourself, but at the same time quickly learned how to become a "priceless". Over the years you had some tough times, but your incredible sense of self esteem and determination saw you through. We have always been there for you and you probably thought us more than you will ever know.

Whatever you decide to do just follow your heart and your decision will be easy. We love you and the wonderful person you have become. We love you,
Mom & Dad

Steven J. DePasquale

Steven,

What an accomplishment you have made through your lifetime. We are so proud of you and wish you all the success and happiness that your life will endure. Best wishes on your graduation and throughout your apprenticeship in your career. You are way ahead of them all kid. To the moon and back, we love you,
Mom, Dad, & Robert

Nicholas DiCristina

Our dearest Nicholas, "Nick-a-Nooch", we've watched you grow from a vibrant, active little boy, into a fine and respectful young man. You have a wonderful personality and a "God-given" talents that can take you far, but mostly it's your competitive edge and yearning to do your very best, that can take you farther. You strive to be the best you can be. And you have learned that through perseverance, hard work and determination. Everything is possible. You make us proud to be your parents, and you make Walter proud to be your brother. Follow your heart and dreams but most of all "stay focused". The sky's the limit! We wish you the best of luck always.
All our love, your #1 fans,
Dad, Mom, & Walter

Cody Nicholas DiGangi

Dear Cody,

It seems like just yesterday I was holding you in my arms.

Now, I look at you and see what a spectacular man you have become. As you go into this new part of your life always know how proud Mom and Dad are of you. You are an always be my baby. Love,
Mom and Dad

Kaltrina Divjaka

Our beautiful daughter

Kaltrina,

Eighteen years have passed so quickly and you will soon attend college. We are so proud of everything that you have accomplished. We have always hoped for you to be this wonderful and intelligent young girl you are today.

Thank you for being such an amazing daughter. You are our life and our future. Congratulations and wish the best of luck in college and beyond. Love always,
Mom and Dad

Amanda Domuracki

Amanda-

We are so proud of you!

Congratulations!

Michele Frances Donato

Dear Michele,

We have watched you grow from a very and very quiet little girl into an articulate and confident young lady with a great sense of humor. You have the biggest heart, brightest smile, and the hardest laugh. You loved high school and all of your friends. As you end this amazing chapter of your life and begin another, we hope you will continue to embrace your new college life with equal success.

Letters from Home

Always remember, what we do for ourselves dies with us, what we do for others and the world remains and is immortal. Be happy, live life, take chances, fall in love, travel, have fun, and remember you can always come home. We are so proud of you. Love you forever and ever, Mom, Dad, Billy, and all of our pets

Mark James Fontánella

Dear Mark,
We want to let you know how proud we both are of you. You were this little boy going into Passaic Valley and now... WOW!!! Look how far you've come. A skinny, nice, handsome, hairy legged young man. I think we did our job and you have never disappointed us in the least. Each year of your life turns another corner to make you a better person. That is all we ask of you. Our family may be dysfunctional but me and dad wouldn't change a thing. All our laughs, crying, yelling, vacations, good and bad times, it has made us all who we are. And you have grown into a person we wished for. Thank you. Each day of your life, you will learn something. Don't forget that. I heard that when I was nine or ten years old and I have never forgotten it. We are always, always, there for you. We love you so much. Love (hugs and kisses),
Mom & Dad

Thomas A. Gaccione

Dear Tommy,
We wanted you to know how proud we are of you. These four years haven't flown by and we can't believe you are graduating.

It seems like yesterday you were our little baby boy and now you are no matter what and look forward to watching you continue to grow and mature! Always stay focused and remember to reach high to achieve your dreams and goals, we love you more than you will ever know! Always and Forever,
Mom & Dad

Amy Gish

Dear Amy,
We can't believe that soon we will be watching you walk across a stage to be handed your high school diploma. We know school didn't always come easy for you, you've worked hard to get to this point and we're proud of you. You began this life as a cute baby girl we called Doodles and grew into a beautiful young woman. Unforgettable, curly, long blond hair usually bouncing in a pony tail. Soon you will be off to college discovering the world on your own, always know that we'll be with you no matter where you go and that we'll be there anytime and anywhere you need us. We wish you a lifetime of learning and opportunities. Remember that setbacks are temporary; they are lessons in life. Some of life's satisfaction comes from overcoming obstacles and succeeding at those things you didn't think you could do. Have fun and laugh often. Love,
Mom, Dad, & Katie

Daniel Gianduso

D.J.,
What can I say...? You have always been a respectful, courteous person, yet never one to follow others. You chose to do things your way, never looking back and have accomplished much as a result.

These attributes will help you as you move forward onto the next phase of your life. I have been proud to call you my son, and look forward to seeing the man you have become. You are unique in your dreams... continue to be innovative in your quest to fulfill them. The world awaits you... I will be here for you whenever you need me, and I will always love you! Love,
Mom

Daniela Gloor

Dear Daniela,
Well, senior year is here, where has the time gone? I can still remember the first time I saw you, with a big smile on your face and those beautiful green eyes. Throughout the years you have accomplished so much. Trying to keep up with you big sister, your will to help at any cost, and much more still amazes us. You are always sweet, there for people, and no matter what time of day it is, you always find time to help anyone who needs you. We could not be more proud of you. Please remember to always stay sweet, and you know the world is yours; you need to just go out and explore it. In life there are two types of people: those that just sit there, and those who achieve, and you are an achiever. I know some day you will reach all of your goals, and become the judge you've wanted to be. No matter what endeavors you partake in, we will always be on your side to cheer you on. With all our love today and always,
Mom, Dad, Erin, Elizabeth, & Frank

Blake Krapels

Blake,

The years have passed so quickly but we are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. You have been blessed with a special talent that holds endless possibilities in your future. Reflect on all that you have learned and all the people who have inspired you. Keep close to your heart as they will continue to influence you as you step into your future. Stay passionate about your goals and keep working hard to achieve them. There is no limit to the amount of success that awaits you.

We are so proud of you and the extraordinary young man you have become. May your life always be blessed with love, happiness and good health. Always remember that we love you and support you with all our hearts. All our love, Mom, Dad, Ashley & Trevor

Jessica Leigh Levetsanos

Flashback 30 years. I stood where you are. Fearful to leave the familiar yet thrilled to explore the unknown. Now in 2011, through a mother's eyes, I see my beautiful daughter, one who is prepared, confident and read to begin a path that is uniquely her own. I'm so proud of what you've accomplished, how you've accomplished it, and the woman you have become. Continue to do your personal best, follow your conscience (and my little voice in your head...) and don't be afraid to "stand alone". Continue to surround yourself with good friends, be grateful, give back, and take advantage of those student discounts. Please call, text, webcam, email and visit home frequently!

Flash forward. I see another diploma in your hand and a rewarding profession ahead. A good education isn't just a degree. You learn "how to learn", adapt, cope and prioritize. It gives you choices. Choose well and be happy!

I love you with all my heart!

Love,

Mom

James Lupo

Jimmy "Loop" Lupo,

No words can express how proud we are of you or express the amount of love we have for you.

It is so hard to believe that seventeen years have passed since we were blessed with your birth. It seems like just yesterday that you were saying "MIL-L-L-L-K" and playing tee ball. Now look at you- you're driving, you have a girlfriend and filling out college applications. Wow! Time flies!

Loop, it's been an amazing experience to watch you grow into a fine respectable young man. Always keep your family in your heart and cherish forever all the memories, Jessica still thinks she's the champ at 'Leaners and Tops'. Remember our family road trips from the Grand Canyon to Route 66, to the Redwood Forest to San Diego and to being on stage with Lance Burton in Las Vegas. Don't forget about the Wildwood vacations with our poker tournaments. Jim, enjoy your life. Be true to yourself, be happy, never accept no as the final answer and go after everything you want- the future is yours for the taking. You are and always be the joy in our lives. We wish you only the best for the future.

We love you and always will (xoxo),

Mom, Dad, & Jessica

Michelle Mattioli

To my daughter Michelle Brittany Marjorie Mattioli, One of the most compassionate hearted people I have ever known. Beautiful inside and out, facing life's challenges with strength and dignity shining through as one of life's brightest stars. She has turned into a beautiful young lady that I am proud to call my daughter and she will continue to reach her dreams as her lucky angel "Daddy" continues to cheer her on from above. Dance like no one is watching... Mommy

Corinne McDonald

Dear Corinne,

We can hardly believe that you are about to graduate from High School. It seems like only yesterday that you were a little girl going to New Directions Nursery School, Little Falls School #2, the first class to "graduate" from School #3, then on to School #1 and finally to PV!! Soon you will be a young adult going off to college, entering a new world filled with knowledge and meeting new friends.

Letters from Home

Whether you will be near or far we know that when you are back in Little Falls, you have so many friends that we know will be your friends your lifetime because of all the memories you share. Most importantly, you have your family that loves you very much and wishes you success and all the happiness in the world. We are so very, very proud of you!
Love, Mom & Dad (and Lucy)

Joseph M. Morabito, Jr.
Joe,
I don't know where the time has gone. You have grown into a vibrant, smart, handsome, fun, talented young man. I am so proud of you! You have many special angels watch over you. There is one Special Angel who is extremely proud of you and loves you very much. Whatever God has planned for you, follow his lead and will never go wrong? I am so thankful to have you as my son and I love you very much. I wish you lots of luck in your future, along with health, wealth success, happiness and love.
Hugs and Kisses,
Mom, XOXOXO

Stephen Morley
Dear Stephen,
We would like to start out by saying how proud we are of you. You have become an extraordinary young man. A parent's wish is to do our best to guide our child down the right road in all aspects of life. You have shown us that we've done a great job. Keep it up and we hope you carry out all you've learned throughout your life. Good luck in everything you do.
We Love you,

Jillian Najjar
Dear Jillian,
Eighteen years ago we were blessed with a beautiful girl named Jillian Nicole. You have made us very proud of all your accomplishments. As you close the door on yet another chapter of your life and prepare to open the next, remember to reach for the stars, keep your dreams in sight and don't let anything get in way of achieving your goals. We wish for nothing but the best of luck during your upcoming college years and beyond.
Love Always,
Mom & Dad

Jonathan Pabon
Jonathan,
My dearest son, I will always think of you with so much love and pride, for the boy you once were and the man you have become. When God blessed your Dad and me with you, He blessed real good. I can't think of a time since your birth that you have not been a joy to our hearts and blessing to our family. You're the finest young man. I hope you will always think of yourself with as much high regard as your Dad, your sister's and I think of you. In doing so, respect for yourself becomes respect for others. You have always been a caring and loving son; you're an extraordinary brother and have been a good role model for your sisters. I have waited for this day, through twelve years of school. From the first day of Kindergarten, as the tears streamed down my cheeks all the way to watching you walk down the isle to receive your high school diploma, these tears still stream down my cheeks.

So proud to see you wear that cap and gown but, sad to see you leave your home town. I know you must go and find your pathway in life, I just hope it's without any strife? You, my young man, have made us proud parents throughout the years, there is nothing I would not do for you, so if by chance you happen to stop by someday to see your old room, I will meet you at the door with my arms held open to embrace you and these tears streaming down my cheeks, not because I am sad, but because you have grown into a wonderful man.

Stefanie L. Persani
Dear Stefanie,
Everyone told us that four years of high school will fly by. Well, it has done just that! You are now embarking on a new adventure-College. What an exciting time for you. We have watched you grow into a beautiful young lady who is free spirited and light hearted. The same free spirit has caused countless arguments and disagreements along the way. I guess it's a growing process for all of us. Please know that our love for you is bigger than the sun. We know your future is bright! Our hope for you is to be happy and never settle for less than what you know you are worth.
We love you and are proud of you!

Lindsay Romagnino:

Dear Lindsay,

I am so proud of you. You have worked so hard to achieve academic success overcoming many obstacles. You are the first member of our family to be accepted into Passaic Valley Honor Society and you have earned it! Additionally, you have grown through your athleticism and participation in field hockey and softball. I am honored to have you as my daughter. You are caring, generous, and kind hearted. You will achieve great success as you continue on your journey through life. I will always be here to support you! I love you a million Swedish Fish. Love your #1 fan,

Gianna Savittieri

Dear Gianna,

Where did the time go? It seems like yesterday you were beginning freshman year. You were a little nervous but very excited. We have watched you grow and mature into a beautiful, caring, respectful young lady. You have balanced so much of your time, from schoolwork, to sports, to coaching cheering and holding a job. You have managed to do it all with a positive attitude and a smile on your face! You have taken each year and its circumstances (not always fair) and turned them into a positive, always handling them with dignity and grace. You are stronger because of it... We have all the faith in the world for you and your talents and know that much BIGGER things lie ahead for you. Congratulations on your graduation! We love you with all our hearts!

Mommy, Daddy, & Joey xoxo

Phillip Sgobba

Dear Phil,

When you were a baby many people gave me advice. The one piece of advice that I am now feeling the true impact of was "enjoy him now because he'll grow up so fast". As I'm going through your baby pictures to submit to your yearbook, that statement is proving to be so true. I feel like it was just yesterday that I was holding you in your arms, rocking you to sleep, or trying every trick I could think of to get you to eat. My, how things have changed. You have given your father and I so much joy throughout, and we could not have asked for a better son. We are so proud of the boy you were and the man you've become. I know you will continue to make us proud in all that you do in the future. As you begin the next chapter of your life I hope that you will take with you all the values we have taught you. Be true to yourself, treat people with respect and laugh, love and enjoy life.

Oh wait I forgot to tell you something.....I LOVE YOU!!

Drew James Sous

To our son Drew,

A prince was born. A blonde hair blue eyed baby boy, the final piece of the Sous family puzzle. From your first word "ball" we should have realized that your future would always revolve around a game. You have grown of up right before our eyes into a confident and caring young man. Your happiness is our happiness. We are so proud of you. Our baby boy has truly become a prince. We love Augie- my son.

Love,

Sweet Haley,

Now the end is nearing for your PVHS experience. It seems like only yesterday you were starting kindergarten (with sun-in tinted and bangs). So many wonderful years full of joy and excitement watching you cheer for PV four years (Varsity for three years), Captain of Varsity Cheering, Student Senate, PV National Honor Society, Spanish Honor Society, Girl Show, Green Dance Head 2010-2011 and Competition Dance at FDO. The joy of watching you grow and succeed
